Adventures For Your Furry Family

Our family owned and operated park cares a great deal about our four-legged kin. We value the companionship and honest love our fur babies give us happily, with the wag of a tail. As a pet adoring community of Chocorua Camping Village KOA, we are committed to maintaining and enhancing our facilities ensuring all your family members will be included in the outdoor fun.

We have over 6 miles of woodland and riverside trails, well-marked and map guided, to give you and your pup plenty of forest air and exercise. At the entrance of the pine needle pathway is our Dog Beach. Paddling around the cool waters and fetching sticks in the Chocorua River are a dog's delight, and sure to make you laugh at their joyous romping.

One of our most interesting canine aspects is the 15,000 sq. foot fenced Dog Park which has a full-size AKC Agility course and Doggie Day-Care kennels. If you want to go off for the day, we will have a buddy stay with your pup and allow them to play in the park. Dates of availability and Day-Care prices can be found on-site at Camp Store or inquire at Office.

When your favorite camping canine begs you to make a reservation here at CCV, be our guest! We have tenting, Pop-Up and RV sites as well as pet friendly cabins and plenty of treats! When making plans to bring your furry pal, here are a few things to consider:

- Bring updated Rabies and Kennel Cough vaccination paperwork,
- Please keep pets on leash. Dog Park and Dog Beach are leash-free, at discretion,
- Clean up after your dog. Baggies are available at stations throughout park,
- Do not leave a dog unattended at a campsite,
- If your dog has a loud and boisterous personality, please do not bring it to entertainment functions,
- Please control barking; your neighbors are here to relax,
- Keep dogs off the beach and out of public buildings (State law),
- If you have a pet of the following breeds: Rottweiler, Pitbull, any mix of those breeds, or an aggressive dog of any breed, we recommend a nearby kennel.

Camping with pets can be a satisfying, relaxing, and memorable experience. We hope you and your fur family will join us for a wagging-tail happy outdoor vacation at our Chocorua Camping Village. See you soon!

“ This is the second year we have stayed at the Chocorua campground. We have a site off the beaten path that is shaded, quiet and secluded. Love all of the nature trails that we can walk on. The campground has trash pickup and recycling bins and everything is so clean. The employees are always driving through the campgrounds on golf carts so any questions can be addressed. We will be back next year!

Secluded is where it's at, and at the lodges there are no cars, no telephones, no electricity; the cabins are only accessible by foot, bike or boat. Each of these off-the-grid cabins has its own firepit, grill, outdoor seating and camp charm. All cabins come with propane stove, refrigerator and lights as well as dishes, utensils and pots & pans. Four of the cabins have their own bathrooms with hot water shower, the other two have a private bath-house with hot water showers within 100 yards. All have either a woodstove, fireplace or propane wall heater for warmth and enjoyment. That's what circus showman P.T. Barnum proclaimed in 1869 as he marveled at the Mount Washington Cog Railway's dramatic ascent to the summit of the highest peak in the northeastern United States. High praise provided by a fleet of seven powerful biodiesel locomotives, each custom designed, built and maintained on site. And with a nod to its steam heritage, the railway also continues to operate a pair of century-old, coal-fired steam engines.

you'll climb through three climate zones to a subarctic tundra similar to that of far northern Canada, and hurricane-force wind gusts occur on the summit an average of 110 days per year. Measurable snowfall occurs on the summit 12 months a year. Regardless of the season, visitors will be most comfortable with warm, waterproof clothing and sturdy footwear.

Swimming Hole Adventures!

The Swift River in Tamworth

The Swift River in Tamworth, NH is easily accessed from either the lower parking lot next to the Tamworth Town Hall, or the upper lot across from Remick's Farm on Cleveland Hill Road. It is a sandy bottom, clear, meandering river that has ample room to float, splash and keep cool on a summer day. There are plenty of rock and moss surfaces to explore along the banks. The Swift River Trail is a quick easy walking path that goes along the river and loops around to end past the agriculture meadow of Remick's Farm.

The Pot Holes Swimming Area is located on the Cold River in Sandwich, NH. The water carved boulder swim spot is located on 113A, Whiteface Road, just past the bridge. If you get to the intersection of Young Mountain Road, you've gone too far. On your way there, venture the long windy Wing and Hannah dirt roads to the self-serve, cash only Sandwich Creamery for fresh cheese, eggs, and ice cream. Another lovely jaunt for the way back on 113, Beede Flats Road, is the Alice Bemis Thompson Wildlife Sanctuary. An extensive boardwalk over the marsh to Atwood Brook may reveal aviary wonders if you stop to check it out.

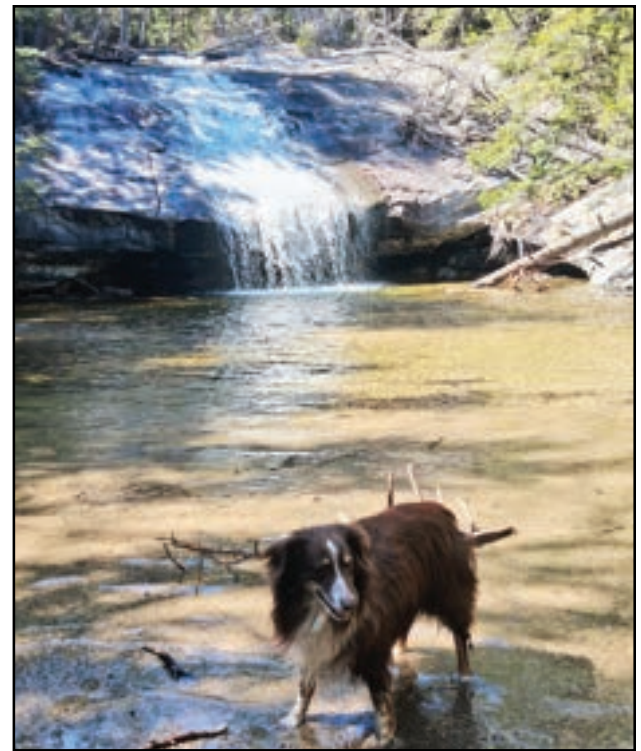

Lower Falls, located in Albany on the Kancamagus Highway is a New England summer tradition. The USFS charges a parking fee so make sure to bring cash. A short drive north on Rt 16, taking a left onto Rt 112, about 20 miles from the campground, will allow you to discover the legendary White Mountain National Forest attraction. The Swift River carries volumes of water from the mountains, naturally creating swimming holes, rock water slides and hours of exploration. Bring your bathing suit and towel as they tend to be quite refreshingly chilly. The Forest Service provides bathrooms, water fountains, and a covered picnic area with charcoal grill. A bit down the road are additional picturesque waterfalls: Sabbaday, Rocky Gorge, and Champney. The Lower Falls is the best for swimming.

Lower Falls on Kancamagus Highway

Beede Falls in Sandwich is hiding out by the infamous dirt Sandwich Notch Road. The Bearcamp River flows down a series of long slab rocks with a picturesque waterfall drop at the end. At the base of the slide is a large shallow pool. You can sit underneath the falls and get a river massage. Venture upstream, on the rocks, to see more erratic boulder cascades, or trek around the various short trails through the mossy boreal forest. To access this hidden gem, travel south on Rt 16 2.5 miles, take a right onto Rt 25 W. 12 miles, slight right onto Little Pond Road 2 miles; continue on NH 109 N./Grove Street through 'downtown' Sandwich 1.8 miles. Grove St. turns into Diamond Ledge Road, stay on that until it ends at the Mead Base. Park to the right of the old farmhouse and walk towards the kiosk with maps and information about the area. The trail is right behind the kiosk. It is about a 5 minute walk on a flat surface to Beede Falls.

When a child faces serious illness, the entire family is affected. Camp Sunshine's program is offered year-round and has the distinction of having been designed to serve the entire family in a retreat model. Since its inception in 1984, Camp Sunshine has offered comfort, hope, and support to over 60,000 ill children, siblings and parents from all 50 US states and 27 countries.

The families who come to Camp Sunshine have children diagnosed with cancer, retinoblastoma, a brain tumor, kidney disease, sickle cell disease, other hematologic conditions including ITP, TTP, aplastic anemia, beta thalassemia major, thrombocytosis, systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE) (age 21 and younger). Bereavement sessions are also offered for families who have experienced the death of a child from a supported illness.

Recreational activities allow children and adults to relax and enjoy the simplicity and beauty of life along the pristine shores of Sebago Lake. Camp Sunshine's sessions foster family involvement, encouraging joy and laughter. While at Camp Sunshine, each family stays in their own suite. Chef-prepared mealtimes in the cafeteria style dining room are occasions for socializing and unwinding.

The Camp Sunshine Program is FREE to all families that attend. They are supported by generous donations from individuals, civic groups, corporations, and foundations. Chocorua Camping Village KOA encourages donations through specific fundraising activities and you're always welcome to donate to our Giving Tree via our fabulous Rec Team members!

Silver Lake Rail Riders... An Adventure to Remember

On a sunny, warm autumn afternoon, bursting with brilliant White Mountain foliage, we embarked on a one-of-a-kind adventure! Silver Lake Rail Riders has come to Madison, NH!

Twelve of us arrived early, snacks and hot spiced cider in hand. We were briefed by Hank Walther - owner and operator of Silver Lake Rail Riders, as to what we were going to see and experience along our self-pedaled rail bikes up and back the old Boston & Maine tracks.

The trip lasted approx. one and a half hours (3 miles up, 3 miles back.) We could pedal at our own speed, no pressure. What a great way to spend the day outdoors with friends and family. Pedaling along the tracks in the woods, spotting animals that came across our path. Woody bogs, historic artifacts, hidden lakes, connection, laughter, and so much more.

Hank and his wife accompany each ride and narrate with great enthusiasm the trip all along the way. They facilitate stops to take photos and quick breaks to "ohh" and awe over the natural environment. Ready for something new to do? Give the Silver Lake Rail Riders a go for a close & memorable daytime experience! From one rider to 20 they've got an adventure for you!

Four different ride schedules per day: 9:30AM 12:00PM, 2:30PM, and 5PM.

Mount Chocorua

White Mountain National Forest

Please consult a good trail map before you hike Mt. Chocorua. The following information is intended to provide an idea of lengths and variety of trails only. Any of the round trip options to the summit are over 7 miles and will take 6 hours or more.

Safety

Hiker Responsibility Code: You are responsible for yourself, so be prepared.

Remember the ten essentials: Map, compass, warm clothes, extra food and water, flashlight or headlamp, matches/firestarter, whistle, rain/wind gear, and pocket knife.

The White Mountain National Forest requires a recreation fee at most trailheads and developed recreation areas. There are self-serve pay stations at these locations. Single bills are recommended for pay envelopes.

Liberty Trail

To reach the trailhead, turn on to Chocorua Lake Road off of Rt. 16, between Big and Little Chocorua Lake. Follow this dirt road and turn left onto Fowler's Mill Road. Continue on Fowler's Mill Road to Paugus Mill Road where you will see a sign on your right for the Liberty, Bolles, and Brook Trails. Please respect private property on the way to the parking area. Trail distances and estimated hiking times from trailhead: Junction of Hammond trail: 2.7 miles, 2 hours, 10 minutes. Jim Liberty Cabin: 3.3 miles, 2 hours, 40 min. Brook Trail: 3.6 miles, 3 hours Mt. Chocorua Summit (via Brook Trail) 3.9 miles, 3 hours, 20 minutes Elevation Gain: 2,500ft. Trail narrative: Leaving the NE side of the parking lot, the trail ascends at a steady, moderate grade along an old bridle path. The Durrell Brook is crossed at 1.1 miles, one third of the way to Jim Liberty Cabin. The Hammond Trail enters to the right 2.7 miles. The Liberty Trail continues to Jim Liberty Cabin at 3.3 miles. The Liberty Trail meets the Brook Trail on a ledge at 3.6 miles. Continue on the Brook Trail another .2 miles to the summit of Mt. Chocorua. (The Beeline enters 10 yards from the Liberty and Brook Trail junction.) The summit of Mt. Chocorua is .2 miles farther via the Brook Trail.

Loop Hike Options: The Liberty Trail and the Brook Trail can be combined for an excellent day hike loop.

Brook Trail

Follow directions to Liberty Trailhead above. Trail distances and estimated hiking times from trailhead: Claybank Crossing: 2.5 miles, 1 hour, 40 minutes. Liberty Trail junction: 3.4 miles, 3 hours. Mt. Chocorua summit: 3.6 miles, 3 hours, 15 minutes. Elevation gain: 2,300 feet. Trail Narrative: With its steep ledges the Brook Trail is more challenging than the Liberty Trail. It has excellent views on the rocky ledges near the summit of Mt. Chocorua. The trail can be hazardous in wet or icy conditions. The trail begins by following a gravel road beyond the parking lot gate. The trail leaves the gravel road on the right at .4-mile and follows south of Claybank Brook. The trail passes to the junction with the Bickford Path and continues to the first ledge at 3.0 miles near where the new Beeline relocation enters on the left. The trail climbs the steep, open ledges of the Farlow Ridge with cairns and yellow blazes to mark the way. The Liberty Trail enters from the right at 3.4 miles with the summit of Mt. Chocorua another .2 miles via the Brook Trail.

Piper Trail

The trailhead is on Route 16, 6 miles south of Conway behind the old Davies's General Store.

Trail distances and estimated hiking times from trailhead: Nickerson Ledge Trail: 1.2 miles, 1 hour Chocorua River Crossing: 1.8 miles, 1 hour, 20 minutes Camp Penacook Spur Trail: 2.8 miles, 2 hours, 15 minutes

Mt Chocorua summit: 4.3 miles, 3 hours, 30 minutes Elevation gain: 2,700 feet

Trail Narrative: The trail starts on a gradual grade following an old logging road. The Weetamoo Trail turns off to the left at .08 miles and the Nickerson Ledge Trail turns off to the right at 1.4 miles. The Piper Trail ascends moderately past a cleared outlook to Carter Ledge. It then becomes steeper and changes in to a series of switch backs, stone steps and paving. The Camp Penacook Spur Trail at 3.1 miles branches off to the left and ascends .2 miles to the shelter. Open ledges are soon discovered giving great views to the north, east and south. The Champney Brook Trail comes in on your right at 3.9 miles and .2 miles further, the West Side Trail comes in on your right. The Piper Trail continues following yellow blazes over open ledges to the summit.

Our Namesake... Mount Chocorua

The Legend...

Part of the Sandwich Mountain Range, Mount Chocorua, stands picturesque, framed by sky and tree. It is one of New Hampshire's most beloved mountains for its great hiking trails and beautiful familiarity.

Mt. Chocorua received its fame after 1725, when the Pequawket Indians and the settlers of the area, under direction from British Army Captain Lovewell, fought against each other in the first and last battle of the White Mountains. Men on both sides were killed and the Pequawket tribe picked up their village and moved to the banks of the St. Lawrence River in Canada. Only one proud and bold Indian chief stayed behind; Chief Chocorua. Chocorua kept his young son Tuamba with him in the mountains, teaching him to hunt and instilling the love, resource, and pride of nature within him.

The Chief befriended a settler family, the Campbells, in the town now named Tamworth. Cornelius Campbell, his wife Caroline and their ten year old son Cornelius Jr. agreed to care for little Tuamba while Chief Chocorua was called away to a Pow Wow in Canada. Tuamba loved playing with Cornelius Jr. and very much enjoyed Caroline's cooking. He acquired a curiosity of the different tastes of the settler's kitchen, one day trying a dish that was meant to kill the wolves attacking the Campbell's cattle. It was strong poison meant for large animals; Tuamba became very ill and died. With heavy hearts, the Campbells buried Tuamba in their farm field.

Two months later, while Cornelius was away from the farm, Chief Chocorua returned to find his little son dead and buried. Agony and betrayal coursing through his blood; he slit Caroline's throat, mortally wounded her son, and ran off screaming to his mountains.

When Cornelius returned to his cabin and found his family slain, he knew it was Chocorua. He grabbed his musket and ran to the mountains to avenge his family. He pursued Chocorua to the highest peak of the mountain. Chocorua stood on the edge of the highest boulder, looking at the only white man he'd called friend; he knew that Cornelius would kill him, so he raised his arms to the sky and shouted "Evil spirits breathe death upon the cattle of the white man. Wind and fire destroy your dwellings. Panthers and wolves howl and fatten on your bones. Chocorua goes now to the Great Spirit." And he leapt off the mountain, crushing his body and releasing his legend on the rocks far below.

Exactly two years later the body of Cornelius Campbell was found in the woods near his cabin, partially eaten by wolves; no explanation of his demise evident. The mountain people believed in the curse of Chocorua, and dissuaded many farmers from settling the area of Tamworth and Conway, New Hampshire. One hundred years to the day of the Pequawket Chief Chocorua's death, a devastating plague killed all the cattle from Albany to Conway, New Hampshire.

Remember this haunting legend when you reach the peak of Chocorua. Look out over the mountains he called home, imagine the inner struggle he must have felt as he sealed his fate, creating a legend to last throughout time. To summit Mt. Chocorua is not only achieving a New Hampshire classic, but is also delving into the history of events that entices us to gaze over the mysterious, majestic White Mountains.

The Barnstormers Theatre: Delighting Audiences Since 1931

The Barnstormers Theatre, in picturesque Tamworth Village, is the second oldest summer theatre in the nation. The 2026 line up includes a hilarious modern musical (Dirty Rotten Scoundrels), an Agatha Christie classic (Murder on the Orient Express), a recent Tony-winner (Eureka Day), and a never-the-same-show-twice comic murder mystery (Shear Madness).

The Barnstormers Theatre, Tamworth, NH

During the shoulder seasons (June and September), The Barnstormers hosts a variety of events and performers such as The Harp Twins, The Cold River Radio Show, Fred Marple, The Jordan TW Trio, and The Nashville Revue.

While the plays and events change each season, The Barnstormers' commitment to provide its audience with the highest quality professional theatre remains the same. That tradition of excellence began at the theatre's founding in 1931. At that time, Director Ed Goodnow and his friends, Francis and Alice Cleveland, organized a troupe of mostly young actors. Francis, the youngest child of President Grover Cleveland, was already pursuing a career on Broadway when The Barnstormers made its debut in the family's summer hometown of Tamworth.

2025's The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee at The Barnstormers

The name "The Barnstormers" was a natural choice as it described exactly what the theatre troupe did – barnstorming from town to town, opening on Monday in Tamworth and then touring locations such as Sugar Hill, Wolfeboro, Conway, Holderness, Harrison, and Poland Spring. They typically finished the run at the Tamworth Gardens – a former boxing venue where the audience was often greeted by former First Lady Frances Cleveland dressed in a formal gown.

After four years of touring, The Barnstormers bought the old Kimball's Store on Tamworth's Main Street in 1935 and then World War II brought an abrupt end to barnstorming. The theatre did its part to keep the home fires burning by showing movies, and, after the war, the building became the troupe's permanent home.

The theatre today continues to provide the region with the very best live, professional summer theatre. Each summer actors and production team members travel from across the country for the privilege of sharing their gifts with audiences in this unique, historic venue.

Remick Country Doctor Museum & Farm

Step into a continuing story at Remick Country Doctor Museum & Farm, where over 200 years of rural heritage unfold across a picturesque New Hampshire landscape. This historic farmstead invites visitors to experience the intertwined legacies of agriculture and medicine, shaped by Dr. Edwin Remick (1866–1935) and his son, Dr. Edwin "Doc" Crafts Remick (1903–1993).

Opened in 1996 through Doc Remick's vision and generosity, the museum has earned regional acclaim, including recognition as a "Best of New England" Editors' Pick by Yankee Magazine. Today, it stands as a vibrant tribute to both medical history and rural community life.

Inside the Museum Center, guests can explore exhibits on the evolution of the Remick farmstead, an overview of medicine through time, and a glimpse of tourism in Tamworth. Upstairs, the preserved mid-century apartment of Doc and Marion Remick offers an intimate glimpse into their daily lives.

From spring through fall, guided tours of the historic Captain Enoch Remick House (National Register of Historic Places), which includes the medical practice rooms and apothecary once shared by the Drs. Remick, deepen the experience.

Outdoors, the farm comes alive with barns and outbuildings, gardens, and select pastured animals. Visitors can choose a self-guided activity or tour, stroll a scenic trail, picnic, or simply soak in the peaceful setting, with Mount Chocorua's distinctive peak as a backdrop.

Family, Forests & Fun — A Short Hi-Story of CCV

Tamara Spencer

When I think about Chocorua Camping Village KOA, I don't just see a campground—I see my family's story written across every trail, every cabin, and every fireplace (which incidentally are a Army Corp of Engineer design from the 70's!) I see my parents' leap of faith, the laughter and adventure of generations, and a place that has grown thoughtfully while holding tight to what matters most.

But this story didn't begin with the Spencer Clan.

Long before campsites and cottages, this land had a life of its own. In the 1600s, it was prized for its rich marshlands and abundant fishing. Moore's Pond was once so full of trout, it was written they pulled them out by the bushel basket! In the early 1900s, the Chocorua River inspired the construction of a hydroelectric granite dam. It was washed out in a historic flood around 1914, but the remnants still stand solid. A beautiful and humbling reminder of both human ambition and nature's strength.

Today, paddling near the granite sculpture, you can feel that quiet history all around you. Also, a fantastic spot to fish for bass in the shade of the sunken blocks.

By the late 1940s, my great-uncle, Pastor Ed Hayes, saw something special here too. He purchased the land and built Wabanaki Lodge—a rustic, off-the-grid retreat where everything, including guests, had to arrive by rowboat. Vacations weren't just about relaxing; they were about pitching in, connecting, and living simply together for the whole summer season.

Then, in 1974, my parents, Lee and Shirley Spencer, took a wild chance that would shape all our lives.

In their early 30s, with big dreams and a deep love for nature, armed with a 1969 CASE tractor, determination, and a whole lot of heart, they began transforming raw land into something welcoming. One campsite at a time. By 1975, with just 10 sites and a small comfort station, Chocorua Camping Village opened its woods.

My childhood here in the 80s and 90s felt like something out of a movie. Days were barefoot and full of shenanigans—swimming out to the raft, staging silly skits, playing ping pong and capture-the-flag until we collapsed in laughter. The Wabanaki cabins were a hub of community, potluck dinners under the pines brought everyone together. There was always room for seconds... and always room for one more person at the table.

At night, campfires glowed under starry skies as we sang songs, told stories, roasted s'mores, and went swimming in the moonlight. Mornings brought mist over the pond, the smell of percolating coffee, and pancakes toasting on the fire-top griddle—simple, perfect moments that hold weight for me in my memories.

Over the years, we've grown—but always with intention.

Today, Chocorua Camping Village is home to over 150 wooded campsites, 21 unique lodging options, and more than 6 miles of nature trails to explore. Families gather at Moe Z Moose Café, kids race between the Rec Hall and Game Room, and summer days are spent at the pool or down by the lake. Our Camp Store, activities, and Themed Weekends bring energy and fun, while our incredible staff—friendly, hardworking, and deeply dedicated—help create the welcoming atmosphere we're known for.

And through it all, the heart of this place remains the same.

Now, as the youngest daughter carrying this legacy forward, I feel both pride and responsibility. My goal is to honor the traditions that built this campground while bringing in fresh ideas that keep it vibrant for the next generation. Because this place isn't just ours—it belongs to every family who has made memories here.

Chocorua Camping Village KOA is more than a campground. It's a story still being written.

And I'm so glad you're part of it.

Whippletree Winery has over forty wines both classic and creative styles. Gold medaled wines that range from a classic Bossy Chardonnay to a Blueberry Muffin wine! Whippletree prides itself on "having a wine for everyone".

It's location is nestled in rural, wooded, historic Tamworth, NH. The winery is "laid back" offering a cozy, boutique setting for visitors to relax and sip and sample wines of choice. Each palate is unique and patrons are encouraged to explore favorite wines and to "test drive" new wines in a comfortable tasting room or the seasonal outdoor seating area. The tasting room is full of antiques and outside seating is surrounded by trees, stone walls...referred to as "the winery in the woods".

The winery is in a relocated lake house that was owned by Virgil D. White who developed the patent for the snowmobile in Ossipee. It was moved to Tamworth from Danforth Bay and renovated to house Whippletree Winery. All wine is hand crafted at the winery using minimal processing for maximum flavor.

Whippletree Winery is a woman owned business with Lauren Barrett at the helm. She is the owner and winemaker. Her signature results are smooth, drinkable wines. Her staff are all involved in wine making and are sales ambassadors for serving her artistic style wines. Her expertise was developed in France and her skills now shine in Tamworth. Whether a new or experienced wine drinker, there is likely a favorite wine waiting for you at Whippletree Winery.

From Our House to Yours ~ The Friendly Staff that Serves You

One of the reasons Chocorua KOA is a top rated and highly reviewed camp and lodging destination is our amazing staff. Our park has come a long way from a 10-site campground run solely by my folks, Lee and Shirley Spencer, to 150 site, 20+ lodge park with a dedicated and super friendly crew of 25+! Chocorua KOA is headed by the Spencers, and as they transition to retirement, their youngest daughter, Tamara Spencer is taking the reins.

Tamara grew up in the campground family business, has degrees in business management, board member on the local Chamber of Commerce, member of the UNH CEO and Family Enterprise Center. She has attended Campground School and earned a CPO (Certified Park Operator) degree with Outdoor Hospitality Industry and KOA Managers School. Who knew that was a thing!? When not campground-ing, she hangs out with her Aussie Boda and loves Great Guana Cay in Abaco, Bahamas.

Bob is local to Wakefield, NH and has been a seasonal camper at CCV for over 10 years. He has worked up the ranks from Back-Up Bob to running and overseeing the crew, projects and everything grounds and staff related. Bob is a school board member, active in his community, and uses his diplomatic skills to keep our staff and guests happy, safe, and coming back year after year. Check out the Giving Tree; in the Pavilion, Bob and his wife Sandy built for Care Camp Sunshine! This is Bob's 6 season managing CCV.

You'll surely meet Paul, Lee's brother, who helped build the campground and still is the main operator of the tractors as well as the go-to guy for all infrastructure knowledge. You'll see Paul running the Tractor Rides. Steve and Gloria live on-grounds, head up the office, Gloria does amazing photography and will be helping run the store. Doris and Pam keep our store in tip-top shape along with local teacher extraordinaire, Pat.

Nancy S. grew up here at CCV and does many things including rec and housekeeping. Joyce Watson tackles purchasing and heads our lodging with a wonderful, hardworking housekeeping crew. Pamela and Mike are part of that hardworking cabin crew, including escorts to Wabanaki Lodges. Joyce's husband Fred maintains the pool and works on numerous camp projects.

Gerry, Chad, Jen, and Stephen will be popping in an out and all about doing updates on lodges, wood harvesting in our forest, assisting in the café, processing wood, and assisting with various projects.

Cathy W. is our Rec Team Leader, she gets to have all the fun with Theme Weekends and keeps you campers happy with activities for all ages! Her husband, longtime seasonal Bob W., is a grounds and projects guy, you can see him leading all sorts of improvements and fixes throughout the park. FreeLee and Patches will be keeping the carts and Doggie Daycare running. Gail will be lead breakfast gal and Butch and Jen will be filling in here n there to cook us up something tasty at the Moe Z Café.

Thank you all for getting it done with smiles on your faces and twinkles on your toes! We appreciate all our crew members and hope you will love them as much as we do! If you see a yellow shirt, say "Hi!" and see what gems of insight they have to offer. Happy staff = happy campers!

Celebrating 50 Years of Chocorua Camping Village & Its Founders!

Chocorua Camping Village owners, Lee and Shirley Spencer, have contributed a good portion of their life to building and constantly improving your camping and lodging retreat. Over the past 50 and more years, the Spencers have cultivated a desire to share their love of the outdoors, travel, and education with as many people as possible. You can feel the fruits of their efforts as you talk to the friendly, dedicated staff, walk on the numerous trails, and enjoy the many camp amenities they created for your enjoyment.

Lee has designed, built, and overseen the development of CCV from thickly wooded, raw acreage to the full amenity Holiday Park it is today. He served as a New Hampshire State Representative, has taught, and done research for both Duke and NH Universities. Lee helped start the local Chamber of Commerce with my Mom, as well as serving as Board Director for the NH Campground Owners Association. His vision for the campground is ever-expanding and he keeps up with the steady innovation that comes from being part of the KOA system. My Dad enjoys his classic cars, traveling to warm climates in the winter, and daily walks year-round. He can still be seen improving the grounds with the same Case tractor with which the camp was built. When he does take off to enjoy life, it's often by motorhome to campgrounds across the States. It can be said, camping is his passion.

Shirley has over 50 years of experience in patience being married to a visionary entrepreneur with an engineer mind! Mom gained this patience and sharp New England wit having taught 5th and 6th grade in N.C. and Dover, N.H. for over 35 years. Shirley has led and attended numerous educational and environmental study trips and was instrumental in providing experiential education by headed programs like Mini Society, a young entrepreneur club, and Students Against Drunk Driving. Mom built the administrative aspect of the family business and had the last of her four children (me!) early because she was 9 months pregnant cleaning cabins! There was no such thing as summer break for this teacher, she was busy building the legacy; running the office, store, cabins and more! Shirley enjoys a peaceful cup of coffee in the morning, traveling, visiting the kids, reading and walking Ms. Ivy.

When they are not conjuring up new projects for the managers or trying to keep the books straight, you may see them on the nature trails with their Aussie Ivy or drivin' off in the Magenta MG to visit with family and friends. During the off season they pack up the RV and go traveling to Florida, Abaco, Bahamas, Colorado. What a Life! So, when you see Lee and Shirley bouncing around this summer, say "Hi" and ask them "What are you up to now?!" ...guaranteed you'll get an interesting story!

Nature Trail Walk

To start your nature trail adventure, walk down to Wabanaki Lodge parking and take a right onto the pathway over the bridges (Trail marker #1). You will go through the wooded island and over the Long Bridge. This beautiful boardwalk spans across the freshwater marsh that sustains life for Blue and Grey Herons, turtles, frogs, fish, and many birds, as well as beaver and moose. Once you cross the 3rd bridge by the Dog Beach, pick up a laminated trail map at the kiosk.

Take the left trail at Marker #2, River Run Trail. This trail is flat and there are numerous roots to navigate. At Marker #3, veer left to stay on River Run Trail. About halfway you will encounter a picnic table on the Chocorua River. Have a snack or let the pups take a dip. Observe the area near the trail, there is a beaver lodge under construction!

Continue on River Run until you see Marker #7, veer right onto Hawk Valley Trail. At marker #6 take the lefthand Carriage Road Connector and left again onto Knowles Hill Trail at #5. Continue on Knowles Hill Trail until you arrive at Marker #14. Take a right onto Hidden Valley Ridge Trail. This section of forest is a withering Quacking Aspen stand that we hope regenerates.

You will go down a hill, staying to the right at Marker #10, go a tad further and take a right at Marker #9. You are back at our Dog Beach and Rainbow Bridge! Congratulations! You've explored your way through about a third of our property trails. Have fun, carry a snack, and stay hydrated!
